

I strongly urge you not to weaken NJ's Do Not Call Law. It has eliminated the annoying intrusion of solicitation calls to my home and allowed my family to regain our home as a quiet haven. I do not believe that telemarketers have the right to disturb families at home. They can solicit people by mail instead of intruding on their homelife.